

JACKSONVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Policy: 3-1
Effective: 04-01-11
Revised: 04-19-19

PROHIBITION OF BIASED LAW ENFORCEMENT PRACTICES

PURPOSE: The purpose of this policy is to affirm the Department's commitment to bias-free policing in all encounters between an officer and any person. To reinforce procedures that serve to ensure public confidence and mutual trust through the provision of services in a fair and equitable manner and protect our officers from unwarranted accusations of misconduct when they act within the rule of the law and Department policy. (2.01)

POLICY: It is the policy of this Department to patrol in a proactive manner, to aggressively investigate suspicious persons and circumstances, and to enforce traffic laws, while insisting that citizens will only be stopped or detained where there exists reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

Employees of this Department will base pedestrian or motor vehicle stops, investigative activities, detentions, searches, property or asset seizures, and arrests of persons upon the standard of reasonable suspicion or probable cause in compliance with the United States and Arkansas Constitutions.

PROHIBITION STATEMENT: Employees of this Department are prohibited from utilizing race, color, creed, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, religion or any other belief system in making law enforcement decisions, unless part of the description of the suspect, and the description is thought to be reliable and locally relevant. Employees shall not engage in racial profiling.

DEFINITIONS:

- I. BIASED POLICING: A law enforcement action based on an individual's race, color, creed, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, religion or any other belief system rather than on the individual's behavior or on information identifying a specific individual as having engaged in criminal activity.
- II. RACIAL PROFILING: A law enforcement action based on race, ethnicity, national origin or religion in selecting which individuals to subject to routine investigatory activities or in deciding upon the scope and substance of law enforcement activity following the initial routine investigatory activity. Racial profiling does not include reliance on these criteria in combination with other identifying factors when the Law Enforcement Officer is seeking to apprehend a specific suspect whose race, ethnicity or national origin is part of the description of the suspect, and the description is thought to be reliable and locally relevant.
- III. BIAS-FREE POLICING: The practice of law enforcement officers relying solely on a standard of reasonable suspicion or probable cause.
- IV. REASONABLE SUSPICION: Is a legal standard of proof in United States law that is less than probable cause; the legal standard for arrests and warrants, but more than an inchoate and unparticular suspicion or hunch. It must be based on specific and articulable facts, taken together with rational inferences from those facts. (13.15)
- V. PROBABLE CAUSE: That set of facts or circumstances based on reliable information or personal knowledge or observation by an officer, which reasonably shows and would warrant an ordinary prudent person in believing that a particular person has committed, is threatening, or is about to commit some criminal violation of the law. In regards to warrants, even hearsay can supply
