 1. Class A uniform;
 2. Class B uniform, long or short sleeved; or
 3. Professional business attire.
- D. Employees shall present a neat and clean appearance avoiding any mannerisms which might imply disrespect to the court.

II. SUBPOENA PRECEDENCE

When giving testimony, they shall speak calmly and explicitly in a clear, distinct, and audible tone so as to be heard by the court and/or jury. They shall testify with the strictest accuracy, confining themselves to the case before the court, and neither suppress nor overstate the slightest circumstances with a view for favoring or discrediting any person. When cross-examined, they shall answer with the same readiness and civility as when testifying in support of the charge, remembering that the ends of justice will be served by showing a desire to tell the whole truth whether it is in favor of or against the defendant.
